

Privacy Policy Document

In line with the new GDPR guidelines, it is important for me to explain to any clients or website users about my privacy policy. This policy sets out how I use and protect any information that you provide for me as a client. I am committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected and information provided will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

What Information I collect and hold:

- Basic information including name, DOB, address
- Contact information
- Detailed information on your health and current symptoms
- I may hold copies of your medical tests, if provided with your consent
- Any health support plans I send on to you

Security

I am committed to ensuring your information is kept secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, I have put in place suitable physical and electronic procedures to safeguard and secure the information I collect.